Adjustable Rate Mortgage Program Disclosure

5/1 Adjustable Rate

Lender

Century Bank of Kentucky Inc
201 W Woodford St
Lawrenceburg, KY 40342

Date: _____

Loan Number: _____

This disclosure describes the features of the Adjustable Rate Mortgage (“ARM”) program you are considering.

- This loan program has an adjustable rate feature. This means that your interest rate and payment amount can change.

How Your Interest Rate and Payment Are Determined

- Your interest rate will be based on an index plus a margin.
- Your monthly payment will be based on the interest rate, loan balance, and remaining loan term.
- Your payment will be rounded to the nearest $0.01.
- Your interest rate will be based on the base rate on corporate loans posted by at least 70% of the 10 largest U.S. banks known as the 'Wall Street Journal U.S. Prime Rate' (Wall Street Journal U.S. Prime Rate) plus our margin. Ask us for our current interest rate and margin.
- Information about the index is published daily in the Wall Street Journal.
- The initial interest rate is not based on the index used to make later adjustments. Ask us for the amount of the current interest rate discount.
- Your interest rate will be based on an index plus a margin, unless your interest rate "caps" limit the amount of change in the interest rate.

Note: If the index for your adjustable rate mortgage is no longer available, the Lender will choose a new index which is based on comparable information.

How Your Interest Rate Can Change

- Your interest rate can change every 12 months, after remaining fixed for 60 months.
- Your interest rate cannot increase or decrease more than 2 percentage point(s) at each adjustment.
- Your interest rate will never be greater than 8.99 percent.
- Your interest rate will never be less than 3.99 percent.

How Your Payment Can Change

- Your payment can change every 12 payment(s) based on changes in the interest rate after remaining fixed for 60 payment(s).
- Your monthly payment may increase or decrease substantially based on changes in the interest rate.
- You will be notified in writing at least 60 days, but no more than 120 days, before the first payment at the adjusted level is due after the initial interest rate adjustment of the loan. This notice will contain information about your interest rate, payment amount, and loan balance.
- You will be notified in writing at least 45 days but no more than 120 days before the due date of a payment at a new level resulting from a change in the interest rate. This notice will contain information about your interest rates, payment amount, and loan balance.
- For example, on a $10,000 360-month loan with an initial interest rate of 3.99% in effect March, 2020, the maximum amount that the interest rate can attain under this program is 8.99%, and the monthly payment can rise from an initial payment of $47.68 to a maximum of $75.17 in month 85 (7 year(s), 1 month(s)). This example is based on a periodic cap of 2 percentage point(s) and a lifetime cap of 8.99 percent. To see what your payments would be, divide your mortgage amount by $10,000; then multiply the monthly payment by that amount (for example, the monthly payment for a mortgage amount of $60,000 would be: $$60,000 / $10,000 = 6$; $6 \times $47.68 = \286.08 per month).

Notice

This is not a commitment to make a loan.

All Doors Are Open In Kentucky

It is against the law to discriminate against any person who wants to rent or own housing. You have the right to fair housing regardless of your color, disability, familial status (whether you live with children under 18 years of age), national origin, race, religion or sex.

Fair Housing

What Fair Housing Law Means

The US and Kentucky Fair Housing acts are laws that provide equal opportunity to all people when buying, selling, renting, financing or insuring housing. You have the right to buy or rent where you choose a home, condominium, apartment, trailer or lot. Everyone must obey the law including property owners, real estate brokers, sales agents, operators, builders and developers, advertisers and advertising media, mortgage lenders, insurers, and banks or other financial institutions.

These Actions are Illegal

Among the practices prohibited by law, it is illegal to: refuse to sell, rent, lease or exchange real estate because of discrimination; deny a reasonable accommodation to a renter with a disability; coerce, intimidate, threaten or interfere with a person's enjoyment of his or her home because of discrimination; communicate that a property is unavailable when it is available; communicate that the racial makeup of a neighborhood may change or cause property values to go down or make other similar false and misleading statements; publish advertising that states a preference of one person over another based on discrimination; discriminate in the grant, rates, terms, conditions or services of financial assistance in real estate transactions; discriminate in the making or purchase of loans; discriminate in terms, conditions or privileges of housing-related insurance; deny access or restrict membership of multiple-listing services or real estate organizations for discriminatory reasons.

Protect Your Rights

If you believe you may be a victim of discrimination, contact us. We will help you file a discrimination complaint. A housing discrimination complaint must be filed within one year of the alleged discrimination. After your complaint is filed, our officers will conduct a thorough investigation to determine if discrimination has occurred. All findings go before the Commission Board, which acts with the authority of a court of law. Save copies of all letters, advertisements or other information relevant to the alleged discrimination. Write down your experiences, including dates, significant conversations and incidents, and the names of the involved individuals.

Exemptions

Exemptions from fair housing law are allowed for the rental of an owner-occupied duplex or rental of one room in a private home. The sale or rental of an owner-occupied home is exempt if the sale or rental takes place without a real estate agent or advertising. A religious organization may exercise a preference to rent to one of its members. It is allowable to refuse to rent on the basis of sex if the property is a single sex dormitory. A landlord may choose not to rent to unmarried couples. A gender-based exclusion from the law is allowed if the landlord can demonstrate that the exclusion is necessary for reasons of personal modesty or privacy. Exemptions are allowed if a landlord rents fewer than 10 units or to fewer than 10 persons in an owner-occupied facility. A landlord may refuse to rent on the basis of familial status if the property is intended for occupants 62 years of age or older or if 80 percent of the units have occupants 55 years of age or older and special services for older persons are provided.

Customer Identification Program

Understanding how the USA PATRIOT ACT protects you.

In response to the devastating events of September 11, 2001, Congress passed the USA PATRIOT Act, which stands for Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism. The intent of the law is to reduce the opportunities for people to establish bank accounts in the United States using fraudulent identification and then use the money in those accounts to fund terrorist activities.

How will this law apply to me?

The USA PATRIOT Act requires minimum standards for verifying the identification of persons opening bank accounts in America. When opening any type of bank account, you will be required to provide:

- Your full name
- Your street address (where you live)
- Your mailing address (if different)
- Your date of birth
- Your Social Security number

You will also be asked to:

- Present current photo identification
- Choose a password that allows us to identify you when you call the bank directly to conduct business.

The law also requires the bank to take any steps we deem to be appropriate to verify the identity of our customers. This may include the use of credit reports and similar information sources.

What will happen if I do not provide the information or documents you request?

As with any financial institution, under federal law, we will not be permitted to open the bank account you wish to receive.

What will I be required to do?

Nothing, until you request to open a new bank account with us. Then, we will simply ask you to provide the information listed above. And, the USA PATRIOT Act requires that all banks in the country obtain the same information to help protect you from identity theft and your country from terrorism.

What if I already have accounts at this bank and want to open another account?

In many cases, we may already have obtained all of the information necessary and you will not notice a difference in opening your new account. However, if we have not previously received all the required information, we will ask you to provide whatever information we do not currently have on file. Or, we may simply verify the information we currently have via a credit report or other similar information source.

What will happen with the information and documents I will be giving you?

Your information will be kept confidential and will not be shared with others outside the bank. There is a federal right to financial privacy that protects you from unwarranted intrusion by federal agencies. The changes made by the USA PATRIOT Act deal more with us knowing more about our customers and sets out consistent guidelines for us to follow.

We want to make your banking experience with Century Bank as pleasurable and secure as possible.
